9. DISCLOSURE OF CRIMINAL BACKGROUND

Due to the nature of your role, the post that you are applying for is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. You are therefore not entitled to withhold information about convictions, warnings, cautions and reprimands that for other purposes would be regarded as spent under the provisions of the Act. Although cautions, reprimands and final warnings are not considered criminal convictions, these will be considered by us in relation to the post that you are applying for. Accelerate will use Part V of the Police Act 1997, to obtain a criminal record check for prospective employees. These checks are known as disclosures and are carried out by the Criminal Records Bureau (CRB).

a) Have you ever been convicted of a criminal offence or been given an official caution? Yes No

b) If yes, please provide full details including date of conviction / caution, court, nature of offence and sentence imposed:

c) If appointed, do you give your consent to the information supplied in a) and b) above being verified by the police? Please note that failure to consent may prevent your application from being considered further. Yes No
